Our school in Beijing is located just a few meters from the Forbidden City.

Beijing has been the capital city of the Middle Kingdom for almost 800 years.

tail and trade is one of the best preserved centres and still retains a mysterious feel of distant times. Having hosted the 2008 Olympic Games, the city has undergone substantial changes: parks and green areas have been re-designed by landscape designers. Nevertheless the city has kept its original uniqueness which it is famous for. Beijing offers easy connections to the most important sites, such as: the Great Wall, the Ming Tombs, the Summer Palace, temples and lamaseries. Chinese is the most spoken language in the world and although it is very different, even students staying a few weeks can enjoy speaking it quickly and easily. Come and explore our amazing history!

The rulers of Ancient China constructed magnificent palaces, imperial residences and scores of temples as a show of power and lordship. The Forbidden City - where our school is located - is the heart of the city and served as residence of the Ming and Qing emperors. It is the largest example of ancient architecture in the world and listed as Heritage of Humanity by the UNESCO. Nowadays Beijing has a population of approximately 13 million inhabitants and is the nation's political and cultural centre. The city which is now a major hub for shopping, re-
