

ITALIAN IN CALABRIA

SCHOOL INFORMATION

Sprachcaffe/Languages PLUS is located in an amply friendly villa amongst the nature and offers a very relaxed and friendly atmosphere. It is the only one of its kind in the entire region and it is surrounded by a nice garden, oleanders and olive trees. Most of the lessons are taught outside underneath the trees and the teachers are always available to practice the language with the students inside and outside the classroom! The school is located near to Tropea and lies within walking distance of the sandy beach and the charming village centre of Santa Domenica.

Calabria – learn Italian next to beautiful beaches and interesting remains of ancient cultures.

Capo Vaticano is situated on the Tyrrhenian coast of Calabria (Southern Italy), just about 3 km from Tropea.

is regarded as a secret haven among surfers, sailors, and divers. From the rocky landscape of Capo Vaticano there is a wonderful view of the Tyrrhenian Sea and if weather permits, you can see as far as Sicily and the island of Stromboli with its active volcano. The Greeks, the Romans and even the Normans discovered the delight of this fertile landscape across the bridge of the Italian Atlas and remained there for long periods. Today, well- preserved excavations from early settlements, temples, statues, and columns give us an almost perfect insight into the traditions and customs of this period. Also a haven for all those interested in archeology.

Calabria, generally thought of as a maritime region, is actually an elongated peninsula with some 800 km of mostly mountainous coastline. Overlooking the clear waters of the Mediterranean, Capo Vaticano is known for its natural scenic beauty, beaches and far-reaching history. Tropea, the most well-known town in the area, is only a short leap away from Capo Vaticano and known for its archaeological past, modern-day harbour and rustic houses built on cliff terraces. The cape
